

2011-2012 Academic School Year Teen Tutor

2011-2012 Teen Tutor Procedure

- 1) Submit a short essay of up to 2 pages, either handwritten or typed, about why you want to be a volunteer tutor. These essays will determine who will be selected to become a tutor, so put some of your creative energy into it! Turn in your essays to the Youth Services Desk by September 12.
- 2) Fill out an emergency notification form from our website and turn it in with your essay.

Teen Tutor Information

Who: Teens, ages 14 to 17 who like children, books, libraries, and fun. Teens who want to participate must have a 3.00 GPA or higher, or are working on CAS hours for IB or NHS or another Honors program.

What: Tutoring children
(P.S. Q: Do I only get to tutor? A: You can tutor and help with the kid activities!)

When: If you are accepted, we will give you a call.

Why: There are so many reasons why you would want to volunteer at the Bedford Public Library! Here are just a few:

- Learn about the library and check out our new books, movies, and CDs!
- Contribute to the dynamic Bedford community.
- Earn volunteer hours for CAS, community service, college admissions, other honor societies, or for the fun of it!
- Gain valuable pre-employment experience.
- Make new friends!
